FIREARM TRANSFEREE'S AGREEMENT WITH TARGET WORLD

Please initial after each portion.

- A. Target World makes every effort to check in firearms on the day they arrive. However, to meet the Federal Government's stringent record-keeping standards, this process may take up to 24 hours. Target World will contact you at the number you provided as soon as your firearm is ready for pickup.
- B. Failure to pick up your firearm within 30 days will result in a storage fee assessment of $25.00 for each month your firearm is stored.
- C. A transferred firearm, left with Target World, with no direction or contact from the transferee for 365 consecutive days, will result in forfeiture of the firearm to Target World, without recourse or recompense.
- D. Should you, as the intended transferee, fail the FBI Background Check, Target World will return the firearm to the licensed dealer who shipped it. This expense is not covered by Target World and you must make arrangements with the seller to pay for return shipping.
- E. Should you, as the intended transferee, appeal a denial by the FBI, Target World will store your firearm for a maximum of 6 months.
